ADOPTION, FOSTER CARE, & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAMS*

Transitional Housing Programs provide young adults age 18-24 the option to live in a multi-family housing unit, a single site, or with a host family after leaving their foster care program, still in need of housing. These programs provide a safe living environment while teaching them life skills that help them become self-sufficient.*

■ ASSISTED LIVING

Assisted living is a licensed residential setting that provides 24-hour care and supervision to seniors who need assistance, but do not require around the clock nursing care. Assisted Living communities provide assistance with activities of daily living, medication management, social activities, housekeeping, meals, transportation and may offer dementia care programs and health related services. Assisted living services promote maximum independence and dignity for each resident. Licensed as a Residential Care Facility for the Elderly (RCFE) with Community Care Licensing.

■ CHILD RESIDENTIAL CARE HOMES

These licensed residential care homes give 24-hour care designed to provide a safe, secure, and home-like environment for children with special needs and children that need close supervision to protect them from endangering themselves and others. These homes prepare emotionally fragile youth for the transition from group living to reunification with their natural family, foster care, or in some cases, emancipation.

HOME CARE (Caregiving)

A private duty home care company/agency offers caregivers, home care aides, companion care, homemaker services and in some cases nursing services within a client's home or place of residence.

Home care services are generally private pay, and not a Medicare-covered benefit. Effective January 1, 2016, home care organizations will be licensed through the State Department of Social Services, Community Care Licensing Division. Their Fresno office can be reached at (559)243-8080. www.cld.ca.gov
