SELECTED TUESDAYS: 1:00 TO 2:30 P.M.

Second Tuesday of the month (onsite)

Fourth Tuesday of the month (virtual/Zoom)

Hearst Cancer Resource Center

1941 Johnson Avenue, Suite 201, San Luis Obispo

There's much a cancer patient can do to mitigate the stress of coping with illness and working toward wellness. Each professionally led discussion contains practical information to help participants implement strategies to do just that. This group is here to support you and help you gain a sense of family with others in a similar part of the journey. This meeting is designed for newly-diagnosed patients through year two post-treatment, stage 1-3; all types of cancer diagnoses are welcome.
