Hearst Cancer Resource Center invites you to create balance in your life

First Wednesday of every month
5:00 to 6:00 p.m. - Via Zoom

offered by:

Hearst Cancer Resource Center

1941 Johnson Avenue, Suite 201, San Luis Obispo

Cancer patients, survivors and their families who meditate often notice a renewed sense of balance with improved health, vitality and serenity. But it can be tough to meditate without a teacher or guide. Guided meditations walk participants through a meditation to help them find a peaceful state—one step at a time. Join us for a moment of calmness and experience the benefits of a guided meditation for yourself.
