RESOURCE SERIES: NATIONAL MS SOCIETY

Beth Koenike is the Community Events Director for Northern California at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, a role she has held since 2014. She primarily focuses on organizing and supporting Walk MS events across the region. Beth began her nonprofit career in 1993, volunteering and working with AIDS Walk, and has been dedicated to community engagement and event fundraising ever since. She lives in San Francisco with her dog, Kona, and enjoys traveling, photography, exploring national parks, hiking, and discovering new historical fiction and documentaries.

Join us, virtually, to learn about the services provided by this national MS organization and community partner of the John A. Schafer, MD Multiple Sclerosis Achievement Center!
