

You are invited to attend:
Long Beach City College
(LBCC)

hosts

Active Shooter – Mass Casualty
Training Exercise

Saturday - June 22, 2019

Join the Long Beach Police and Fire Departments, along with LB City College in participating in a joint large-scale exercise to train law enforcement and fire personnel to work side by side to save lives during a simulated active shooter mass casualty incident.

You will practice the “Rescue Task Force (RTF)” life-saving response model during the event. Your agency is welcome to observe the training.

To volunteer as a victim (patient for the drill), Moulage (makeup artist) or drill assistant: Please contact Long Beach Police Officer Chi via email at LBCCVikingsPD@gmail.com, or at (562) 900-8105.

Please arrive at 4 pm to volunteer.

Saturday
June 22, 2019
5 pm – 3 am

Veterans Stadium
5000 E Lew Davis
Street Long Beach,
CA 90808

Training will focus on multi-agency
response to a mass
casualty incident

Law Enforcement
Coordinator
Contact:

Long Beach Police Department
Sergeant Ryan Watson
(562) 570 – 2627

Ryan.Watson@longbeach.gov